Interagency Savings Bonds Committee

OFFICE OF THE CHAIRMAN

WASHINGTON, DC 20226

February 28, 1986

Honorable William J. Casey
Director
Central Intelligence Agency
Headquarters
McClean, VA 22101

Dear Mr. Casey:

President Reagan has asked me to serve as the 1986 Chairman of the Interagency Savings Bonds Committee. I was pleased to accept this assignment, but realize that it will take the coordinated efforts of all Department and Agency heads to increase the level of participation significantly within the Federal sector.

The $5 billion in sales of U.S. Savings Bonds in FY 1985 saved the Treasury and American taxpayers $270 million. In view of the Gramm-Rudman-Hollings Act, the Savings Bonds Program offers a positive contribution to increasing the savings of Americans and to reducing debt financing costs in 1986.

This year's campaign will soon be underway. A government-wide kick-off rally is scheduled for March 12, 1986 at the Department Auditorium. I hope you can join me in getting this year's campaign off to a rousing start. Details on the rally will be sent to you shortly.

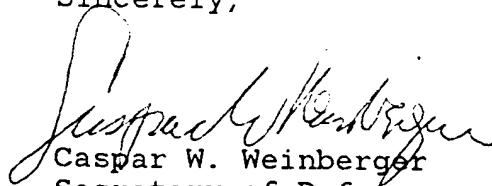

Evidence shown that these campaigns succeed only when top management lends its very visible and vocal support. I am asking you to endorse the 1986 Savings Bonds Campaign personally in your Department of Agency. I have also asked Bob Sweeney or Ken Knapp of the Treasury Department's Savings Bonds Division to contact you and your Vice-Chairman personally to discuss your campaign plans and to provide support necessary for your success.

Good luck, and thank you in advance for your support.

Sincerely,
